

CHRIST EPISCOPAL SCHOOL PARENTS ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE DESCRIPTIONS AND 2008-2009 CHAIRMEN

In-House/Community Building

Meetings and Events: Responsible for the planning and execution of all CESPA social events. The primary focus is on our two general meetings/socials. However this committee may be called upon to support smaller school gatherings throughout the year. This committee requires a large amount of volunteers. Leslie Uson

Sunshine: Plans and coordinates treats, breakfasts and luncheons throughout the school year for the faculty and staff. This committee is also responsible for Teacher Appreciation Week usually held in May. Activities are coordinated through separate ECC, 1st - 4th, and middle school chairpersons. Amy May, Susan Loustalot, Deb Hocevar

Links: Aims to welcome new families into the school by pairing them with a current CES family as they become integrated into our school community. Nicole St Paul

CES Apparel Sales: Coordinates sale of all school related apparel. Activity peaks around registration and the beginning of the school year. Lisa Rice

From Our Table to Yours: Provides meals to families within our school community when a special need arises such as a birth of a child, a health crisis or a family circumstance where help with meals would be a blessing. Volunteers will be contacted as the need arises. Lisa Flood

Publicity/Communications: Works as a liaison between the school and the local media and coordinates a staff of photographers to be responsible for recording major school events and submitting photos to the school administration for the local newspaper and our CES website.
ECC Perry Gray and CBC Yonshin Willis

Community Outreach

Grand Friends Day: This wonderful day is held on both campuses on Friday October 24th. Sharing our school with grandparents, friends from Christwood and other special guests proves to be an enriching experience for all ages.
ECC Beverly McQuaid and CBC Shannon Klaare

Parents Council: This is a single person committee responsible for attending Parent's Council in New Orleans.
Melissa Whittington

Support for Faculty & Administration

Room Mothers: This committee will work with the head room mother to aid teachers and administration in organizing parties, events and field trips. Room mothers are selected for PK through fourth grade. Britton Miller

Library and Book Events: These events are planned throughout the year with the librarian and the administration. They include Literary Week, assistance at the library and the Birthday Book Club. Amy Morris-Literary Week; Joanna Case-Birthday Book Club

Registration: This committee organizes Registration Day held in August at both campuses to welcome new and returning families, and to aid with back-to-school questions and paperwork. Meagan Dubreuil

School Packets: CESPA provides this program as a service for parents. Materials requested by teachers for each student are compiled and presented to parents for ordering at the close of the school year. The supplies are distributed by the teachers on the first day of school. Amy Verges

Fundraising

Sally Foster: The sale and distribution of high quality gift-wrap is the goal of this simple but effective fall fundraiser.
Jane Slatten, Ashley Ponder

Christmas Greens & Poinsettias: A wonderful selection of fresh greens and poinsettias is offered to the school community in early October, with delivery in time for the holidays. Meg Smith & Cori Nelson-Xmas Greens; Melissa Biggs-Poinsettias

Cuisine to Geaux: A one day sale of prepared goods, fresh food and homemade treats. Take the night off from cooking and come buy dinner from CESPA. Jill Heebe

Art at the Park: AATP is CESPA's most profitable and largest fundraiser and a great way to enrich our children's lives through creativity. It includes a box parade, juried art show, cultural entertainment, crafts and fun for the whole family! This April event is a huge undertaking and requires the support of the entire school community. Nicole Reilly

Children's Art Projects: A committee of AATP which works in conjunction with the faculty in producing artistic items to be auctioned off at the Opening Night Party. Organized and creative volunteers are needed for this rewarding work with the children. Alix Crane
