Curriculum Notes

Seniors Speak: CES requires all seniors to successfully complete an independent research project and make an oral, Ted Talk-like, presentation. Each student chooses a topic to investigate, one that holds personal interest or meaning. Seniors Speak develops rigorous research skills while leaving room for individual and creative expression. This year-long journey ends with evening presentations, which historically have included multimedia technology, 3D constructions, costume construction, artistic interpretations, product development, and traditional documented research.

Arts: CES offers innovative, challenging experiences in Theater, Technical Theater, Costume Design, and Studio Art. In addition to technical training, our program develops the creative potential of the students through problem-solving, project-based learning, and hands-on instruction. Upper-level, Honors and Independent Study options provide the opportunity for passion enrichment through a demanding curriculum.

Science: CES students are required to make observations, think critically, and provide evidence to support their reasoning about the natural world around them. In the core courses, we engage in curricula that fosters discovery, inquiry, and analysis through lab experiences, real-world phenomena case studies, and class discussion. Electives provide space for student-driven curricula and instruction based on their interests. Honors and AP courses are rigorous and fast-paced, challenging those students that desire a more challenging learning experience.
